

Year 2 Lead Us Not Into Temptation: Right or Wrong? Knowledge Mat

Subject Specific Vocabulary		Vertical Links: Year 1 Unit 1.3 What a wonderful world: Who made the world? Horizontal Links: History: Nelson Mandela History: Grace O'Malley Sustainability: Climate Change Diagonal Links: FS2 UTW/History: Gunpowder Plot FS2 and Year 1 Sustainability Year 1 Geography: Comparing Howden to Chambakolli		Prior Learning good	Something that is thought to be right and pleasing.			Year 1 Unit 1.3 What a wonderful world: Who made the world?
evil	Something that is thought to be wrong and wicked.			Key Questions fairness	Treating people equally or in a way that is right.			When do we have to make choices; what choices might we make?
temptation	Wanting to do something that is wrong.	Right or Wrong? Knowledge		What are our different choices?
moral	What is believed to be right and wrong.	The Good Samaritan is a parable Jesus told to teach people how they should treat others.		What are temptations; how do we deal with them?
consequence	Something that happens as a result of something you do.	The Lord's Prayer was a model of how to live that Jesus gave to his disciples.		How do we know what is right and wrong?
Samaritan	Someone who gives help to people who need it.	Adam and Eve were the first people in the Jewish creation story. Eve was tempted by a snake and made a bad choice.		What does it mean to be 'good'?
mitzvot	Jewish commandments.	Abraham is considered the Father of the Jewish faith. Mitzvot help Jewish people to lead their best lives.		What is the purpose of rules?
Ramayana	An Indian story which tells the tale of Rama and Sita.	Rama and Sita is an important story for followers of the Hindu Dharma and teaches them that goodness is greater than evil.		Is it worth doing good things if nobody sees you?
dharma	Fulfilling your duty; doing the right thing.	For many Hindus, the celebration of Diwali includes time to think about the triumph of light over darkness in the Ramayana story. People light oil lamps to remind them that light shows the way.		How might a Christian/Hindu/Humanist respond to this?
duties	A responsibility to do something because it is morally the right thing to do/	The Humanist Golden Rule is to treat others as you would like to be treated.		Is it ever right to steal or tell lies?
empathy	The ability to understand and share the feelings of another.	Humanists believe that to live a good life is to look out for others and be thoughtful rather than to pray to God.		What do sacred books say about how to treat others?

Year 2 Lead Us Not Into Temptation: Right or Wrong? Knowledge Mat